The Coming Maude.

Maude Muller, one day, eating fudge. Looked up and saw the county judge.

Maude was a pretty girl, all right. His honor fell in love at sight.

And when about a month had fled, Maude promised that the judge she'd wed.

Then o'er the judge's pathway came A wealthy, proud and stately dame.

The judge, then, for ambition's sake, Poor little Maude resolved to shake.

An ardent sufragette was Maude, Chairwoman of the county board.

"I'll get square," Maude said, "without fail."

So told her party her sad tale.

Judge had elected been in fall: In spring they voted his recall.

The haunted dame refused to wed. "You are no longer judge," she said.

This lesson said he learned, you bet: "Don't monkey with a sufragette!"

Mothers! Have Your Children Worms?

It kills and removes the worms, improves your child's appetite, regulates stomach, liver and bowels. The symptoms disappear and your child is made happy and healthy, as nature intended. Offers of $15 per cwt. are being made in Nicholas county, but the tobacco growers are holding out on the present prospects for a short crop. They say that every day of the drought is cutting the crop shorter and making the early tobacco more valuable.

The winter wheat estimate in the winter wheat crop report shows the 1913 crop will be 19,000,000 bushels greater than ever before. Corn, spring wheat, potatoes, tobacco and other crops were badly damaged by drought last month. All wheat production, the estimate says, will be 774,000,000 bushels, against 730,267,000 bushels.

Western bankers conferred with the Treasury Department concerning the proposed deposits of Government funds to move the crops and were informed by Secretary McAdoo that $150,000,000, if necessary, would be placed in the South and West during the crop-moving time, instead of $50,000,000, the amount first indicated.

James Yowell, of Hustonville, bought 177 sheep which S. H. Baughman had on his farm in Casey county. They were of various ages and Mr. Yowell paid an average of $2.65 for them. He also bought 100 ewes from Ford & Geyer, of the West End, at $3.25. There were 600 cattle on the market Monday, mostly light stuff, and it went begging, for there is practically no grass to be had; the farmers do not want to be caught with a bunch of steers on hand and nothing to feed them on if they can avoid it. J. H. Baughman bought several head, weighing 500 to 600 pounds at $4.85 to $5. He will grade them and put them out to feed.—Stanford Interior Journal.

Suffered Eczema Fifty Years—Now Well.

Seems a long time to endure awful burning, itching, smarting, skin-disease known as "tetter"—another name for Eczema. Seems good to realize, also, that Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment has proven a perfect cure.
